Mr. Gordon asked that we consider changing council configuration so that they will be facing the audience and camera during the meetings.

Mayor Turner asked council if they felt the need to change.

Councilman Blankenship asked if the cameraman could tape over by the door.

Mr. Vance stated that he could move anywhere in the room.

Mr. Gordon questioned if he could receive the information he previously requested regarding the hall and Mayor Turner will be giving him the information after the meeting.

Mayor's Comments:

Mayor Turner stated that the next Citywide Yard Sale will be June 24th, 25th and 26th.

Mayor Turner asked council to review the budget and let him know if they have any questions prior to the June 20th meeting which will be the 1st reading of the ordinance.

Mayor Turner advised that he attended the closing of the property purchased at the Maintenance Department and will be attending the closing for Andrews Laser in a few weeks.

Mayor Turner informed council that we didn't receive any bids on June 3rd for the Maintenance Trailer. However, someone called today and would give $3,000.00 and move the trailer themselves.

Discussion ensued regarding the trailer and council stated that they would like to receive at least $5,000.00.

Mr. Vance will relay this information to the individual.

Mayor Turner stated that the following Liquor License Applications were received and approval was needed.
